

Mike Pence

FOR PRESIDENT

Day One Executive Action

Mike Pence knows that the purpose of government is to protect American lives and to protect our God-given freedoms.

As President, Mike Pence will spend his first day in the White House unwinding Biden's disastrous economic agenda, securing our border, defending unborn life, ensuring the safety of every American, and protecting children from the radical transgender agenda.

While we must work with Congress to pass our aggressive legislative agenda, there are immediate steps that must be taken to restore America. Within the first 100 days of his inauguration, President Pence will take the following Executive Actions.
